COLD WEATHER PROMISED FOR CHRISTMAS DAY

Weather Director' Evans is author' for the report that Richmond is to have a cold, frosty Christmas day. The Indian summer weather of yesterday will disappear to-day to be followed by a cold snap of the genuine Yuletide variety. Throughout the West snow is reported and sero weather is visiting the North. On yesterday the air was as baimy as a May day, and overcoats were not in ovidence. The warm rays of the sun melted the remaining show, and even the grass took on the ground of spring time. After midday the mercury went above the 60 mark. The weather was uncomfortably warm and as unusual as a frost in June.

Unitarian Christmas Tree. The Sunday school of the First Unita-rian Church will have a Christmas tree at the home of the pastor this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, when the fol-lowing programms will be rendered; Song, "It Came Upon the Midnight
